The conductor told me to climb on board.

My sister was right beside me.

I was riding on the polar express.

We were on our way to the North Pole.

I looked out the window and saw trees draped in snow.

There were two wolves watching the train as it thundered by.

I couldn't believe my eyes when I saw Santa sitting in his sleigh waiting for me.

I received the first gift of Christmas.

Santa gave me a silver bell from the harness of the reindeer.
